May your dreams run wild during atonic sleep,
And you never snout, root, or pout.
May your toes be forever down going,
Every fasciculation benign, no doubt

I wish your fields keep full and lovely
Be it only pain you neglect,
May your frontal lobes compel you
And hippocampi always recollect.

May you feel the ground you walk upon
Keep your gait straight and true
And to other neurologists, be ever uninteresting
A champagne tap toast to you!
