Call for Voices: Lived Experiences

The Editor of the Neurology specialty section Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, Anti-racism, & Social Justice (IDEAS) encourages you to submit short first-person accounts (1,000 words or less) of experiences lived within the realm of IDEAS with the goal of informing and enlightening our community on these critical issues. Some topics to consider include, but are not limited to:

- Descriptions of personal experiences that shaped your views of IDEAS.
- Reflections on the intersection between personal identity and career.
- Discussions at the intersection of IDEAS and neurology patient care, research, education, advocacy, or policy.

Submit your contributions to journal@neurology.org and include "Voices Submission" in the subject line.
