The editors and editorial team of Neurology® wish to express sincere gratitude to the peer reviewers who have volunteered their time and expertise over the last 6 months. Your thoughtful and constructive comments have helped to shape the research presented in Neurology and have contributed to the advancement of knowledge in this field. We appreciate your commitment to the scholarly community and your willingness to share your knowledge and expertise with us. Thank you for your invaluable contributions to our journal.

In the 6-month interval from October 1, 2022, through March 31, 2023, Neurology received 2,332 new and 682 revised manuscripts, and the reviewers listed in this article completed 3,041 reviews. For comparison, the figures for the same period ending in 2022 were 2,728 new and 758 revised manuscripts and 5,379 completed reviews. The average time for reviewers to complete their work decreased from 19.5 to 10 days.

We are also pleased to acknowledge the contributors to our podcasts. The Neurology® Podcast was founded in 2007 by Ted Burns, MD, as one of the first podcasts in medical education. Between October 1, 2022, and March 31, 2023, it was downloaded 938,906 times. The Neurology Minute Daily Briefing, launched in 2019 to provide clinically relevant neurology news in a couple of minutes, has averaged 4,334 downloads per day in the same period. Thanks to the contributions of Editor Stacey Clardy, MD, PhD, FAAN, Deputy Editor Jeff Ratliff, MD, and the interviewer producers of the Podcast team, our podcasts provide content that affects clinical practice and neurologic education in an engaging and convenient format.

If you would like to do more reviews or if you have never reviewed for the journal but are interested in doing so, please send an email message to journal@neurology.org.
